NOTE FROM THE DIRECTORS:

As we reach the end of our magical journey with “Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer”, we want to take a moment to share our heartfelt appreciation for everyone who helped bring this beloved holiday story to life.

To our wonderful cast—our reindeer, elves, misfits, and holiday heroes—thank you for diving into this adventure with such imagination and joy. Your enthusiasm, hard work, and sparkle lit up every rehearsal and every moment on stage. Watching you grow in confidence and creativity has been a true gift.

To the parents and families, your support has meant everything. From drop-offs and pick-ups, to helping with songs, lines, and costumes, to cheering from the audience—you’ve played an essential role in making this production shine. We are so grateful for your trust and encouragement throughout the season.

As your directors, we’ve cherished guiding you through this festive experience. You embraced challenges, built friendships, and brought a classic tale to life with your own unique magic. The memories made during this production are ones we hope you’ll carry with you long after the final bow.

Although our time in Christmastown is coming to an end, new adventures and opportunities are just around the corner. Wherever your path leads next—on our stage or beyond—always remember that you are part of our COMAD family, and our door is always open to you.

Thank you for your spirit, your kindness, and your shining talent. You truly made this story glow.

With warmth and pride,

*Your Directors,
Erica Lee Cianciulli, Karly Meehan,
Molly Greenberg, Malcolm Ellis*
